MOTION TO MODIFY CHILD CUSTODY FORMS PACKAGE

Introduction

The Unauthorized Practice of Law

These forms are provided at no cost to you by the Missouri Supreme Court Committee on Access to Family Courts so that you may have access to the Missouri Courts. It is a crime for another person to charge you a fee for preparing these forms for you unless that person is a licensed lawyer. If anyone other than a lawyer attempts to charge you for preparing these forms, you should notify the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel, 3335 American Avenue, Jefferson City, Missouri, 65109.

General Information about All Forms

Information that you enter on these forms can be saved on your computer ONLY if you are using Adobe Acrobat version 8.0 or higher. They can be completed using the free Adobe Reader, but you will not be able to save the information you enter.

The forms listed below are interactive. You can enter the information on these forms before you print them. If you fill the forms in on your computer, much of the information you enter on one form is automatically transferred to other forms. For example, if you type your first name on the “Motion to Modify Child Custody,” your first name will also appear on the other forms.

Some forms refer to the mother and father as the parties, while other forms refer to the parties as the Petitioner and the Respondent. The Parenting Plan refers to the Mother and Father. It is assumed that you are the person that is filing the case. Because of this, you must indicate whether you are the mother or the father and you must indicate whether you are the petitioner/plaintiff or the respondent/defendant so that information from one form can be automatically transferred to the other forms.

This package also contains bookmarks. These bookmarks help you to navigate throughout these forms. In addition, there are “links” embedded in the forms. These links are usually green, and can take you to a related location in the forms.

If the other party signs the “Answer” so that service of process is not required, then you only have to file one copy of the “Motion to Modify Child Custody”, “Income and Expense Statement”, “Property and Debt Statement”, and “Parenting Plan”. If the other party does not sign an “Answer”, then you must file one additional copy of all of these forms. You should also keep a copy of these forms for your records.

Some additional forms may be required by some Missouri Courts. You should check with your local court.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Motion to Modify Child Custody (Form CAFC101)

This form requires that you list income and expenses for both you and the other party. A lawyer can assist you in finding out this information.

4. Property and Debt Statement (Form CAFC140)

This form is required by most courts and helps the court reach a decision in your case.

5. Answer to Motion to Modify Child Custody (Form CAFC111)

6. Judgment of Modification of Child Custody and/or Support (Form CAFC170)

This is a “proposed” judgment. Different courts handle the preparation of the judgment in different ways. In some courts, the judge will direct you to prepare a judgment, and in other courts, the judge will prepare the judgment.

7. Filing Information Sheet (Form CAFC067)

This form is required by most courts to enter the information about your case into the Court’s computer system.

8. Notice of Hearing (Form CAFC721)

4. Duration of Plan

The terms and conditions set forth in this parenting plan shall remain in full force and effect until the children are emancipated or until this plan is modified by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Decisions Concerning the Children

“Joint legal custody” means that the parents share the decision-making rights, responsibilities, and authority relating to the health, education and welfare of the child, and, unless allocated, apportioned, or decreed, the parents shall confer with one another in the exercise of decision-making rights, responsibilities, and authority. RSMo. §452.375.1(2)

5. Types of Decisions

The three types of decisions that parents must make concerning their children are major decisions, daily or everyday decisions, and emergency decisions.

A. Major Decisions

Major decisions are the significant decisions about the children. Major decisions are made by the parent or parents with legal custody. The following are examples of major decisions:

- The choice or change of schools, including college or special tutoring,
- The choice or change of physician, surgeon or dentist,
- Religious instruction, training or education,
- Selection of child care providers,
- Major medical care, surgery, or any medical procedure requiring hospitalization or out-patient surgery,
- Major dental work and orthodontia,
- Psychological or psychiatric treatment or counseling,
- The choice or change of camps or other special or extracurricular activities,
- The extent of any travel away from home,
- Part or full-time employment,
- Purchase or operation of a motor vehicle,
- Contraception and sex education,
- Actual or potential litigation on behalf of the children.

B. Daily or Everyday Decisions

Daily or everyday decisions are routine decisions like minor medical treatment, bedtimes, homework, chores, selection of clothing and normal daily activities.

Daily decisions shall be made by the parent having actual physical custody at the time of the decision. The parents shall cooperate in establishing mutually agreeable policies regarding such decisions in order that routine decisions remain as consistent as possible.

C. Emergency Decisions

Emergency decisions are decisions of an urgent nature. They affect the health and safety of the children and have to be made before it is possible to contact the other parent.

The parent who is with the minor child requiring emergency care may make the emergency decision. The parent making the emergency decision shall advise the other parent of the nature and extent of the emergency as soon as possible.

6. Access to Medical, Dental and Educational Records of the Children

Unless otherwise provided in this parenting plan, both parents are entitled to access to records and information pertaining to the children, including, but not limited to, full and complete medical, dental, and educational records subject to Part A, Paragraph 19.

12. Location of Exchanges

If a specific location for an exchange is not stated on the schedule, then the exchange shall occur at the following location:

You must check one and only one of the following four boxes.

- ☐ All exchanges shall occur at the Mother's Residence.
- ☐ All exchanges shall occur at the Father's Residence.

Other Provisions Concerning the Children

18. Relocation

RSMo. §452.377states:

“Absent exigent circumstances as determined by a court with jurisdiction, you as a party to this action are ordered to notify, in writing by certified mail, return receipt requested, and at least sixty days prior to the proposed relocation, each party to this action of any proposed relocation of the principal residence of the child, including the following information:

- (1) The intended new residence, including the specific address and mailing address, if known, and if not known, the city;
- (2) The home telephone number of the new residence, if known;
- (3) The date of the intended move or proposed relocation;
- (4) A brief statement of the specific reasons for the proposed relocation of the child; and
- (5) A proposal for a revised schedule of custody or visitation with the child.

Your obligation to provide this information to each party continues as long as you or any other party by virtue of this order is entitled to custody of a child covered by this order. Your failure to obey the order of this court regarding the proposed relocation may result in further litigation to enforce such order, including contempt of court. In addition, your failure to notify a party of a relocation of the child may be considered in a proceeding to modify custody or visitation with the child. Reasonable costs and attorney fees may be assessed against you if you fail to give the required notice.”

The residence of the child may be relocated sixty (60) days after providing notice unless a parent files a motion seeking an order to prevent the relocation within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice. Such motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the specific factual bases supporting a prohibition of the relocation.

Residential Schedules

1. Weekend and Weekday Schedule

Each exchange should be written on the Weekend and Weekday Exchange Schedule. A sample entry for one of the exchanges may be as follows: “5:30 p.m. Father receives children”. This means that at 5:30 p.m., Father will begin a period of time during which the children will be with him.

The last person to receive custody on the Weekend and Weekday Schedule must be different than the first person to receive custody on the schedule because after each two week period, the cycle repeats itself. There is always an even number of exchanges for a two week period.

A sample two week exchange schedule is located on Page 5 of these Residential Schedules.

2. Vacation Schedule

You must select one and only one of the following two options.

- ☐ No specific weeks will be set aside for our vacations.
- ☐ Each parent may designate _____ week(s) each year during which they will have exclusive physical custody of the children and the regular or special exchange schedules do not apply. Father shall have first choice of weeks in odd-numbered years. Mother will have first choice of weeks in even-numbered years. The parent with the first choice of weeks must designate the vacation weeks by March 31 of each year.

During this period, the holiday schedule still applies. Neither parent can select a week which would deny the other parent of a holiday to which they are entitled.

3. Holidays

A different schedule can apply on holidays. The times each parent will have with the children during the holidays are set forth on the Holiday Exchange Schedule on page 3 of these Residential Schedules.

Include the name of the parent that will have the holiday and how the holiday will be structured. For example, Memorial Day is always on a Monday. Should the Memorial Day holiday begin at 6:00 p.m. on Sunday before Memorial Day? Alternatively, should it include the entire weekend? If the entire weekend is included, then it is possible that one parent may not have a weekend with the children for several weeks.

Holidays and vacations do not alter the “Week One” or “Week Two” designation, but they do apply ahead of the regular schedule. If the holiday schedule conflicts with any other schedule, the holiday schedule takes precedence.

Weekday and Weekend Exchange Schedule

Since the parties do not specify an exchange location, the exchange would occur at the default location in Paragraph 12 in Part A of the Parenting Plan.

This entry contains a mistake. It is unclear whether it refers to 5:30 a.m. or 5:30 p.m.

This entry is also a mistake. Mom already has the children with her so she can't receive the children. There should always be an even number of exchanges for any two week period.

Since Dad is the first parent to receive the children on this schedule, Mom must be the last parent to receive the children. Mom has the children at the start of this schedule.

Child Support Calculations

Child Support

Child support is an amount of money paid by one parent to the other parent for the support of the children. In addition to a regular monthly child support payment, other expenses of the children may be divided between the parents as child support. Part B of the Parenting Plan contains the calculation of child support and the allocation of the children's expenses.

Form 14

Form 14 is a form used to calculate a presumed amount of child support. Form 14 is part of this parenting plan and is found on Part B, Page 8. The court will usually follow Form 14, however, if the court finds that the child support calculated pursuant to Form 14 is unjust or inappropriate, it will set child support at a different amount.

Parents must also determine the allocation and amount of other expenses of the children such as medical and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, day care, and other extraordinary expenses. These expenses constitute part of the child support obligations of each parent. These other expenses may be included in the Form 14 calculation, or they may be paid independently of the child support payment.

Parents may agree on an amount of child support and the allocation of expenses. The court does not have to accept this agreement and can set different support amounts. Even if the parents have agreed on an amount of child support, THEY MUST STILL CALCULATE A FORM 14 FOR THE COURT. As they work through this parenting plan, they will also be entering the information that is required for Form 14.

Missouri law further provides that "An award of joint physical custody does not preclude an award of child support pursuant to Section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules in determining an amount reasonable or necessary for the support of the child." RSMo. §452.375.12 Child support may be appropriate even if both parties have custody of the children an equal amount of time.

4. Party to Pay Child Support

One party must be called the "parent paying support" and one person must be called the "parent receiving support". This is true even if no child support is going to be paid.

You must check one and only one of the following four boxes.

☐ Mother will pay regular monthly child support to Father.

Mother is referred to as "person paying support" and Father is referred to as "person receiving support".

☐ Father will pay regular monthly child support to Mother.

Father is referred to as "person paying support" and Mother is referred to as "person receiving support".

☐ No regular monthly child support will be paid by either parent.

Mother will be referred to as "person paying support" and Father will be referred to as "person receiving support" for the purpose of the Form 14 child support calculation only.

☐ No regular monthly child support will be paid by either parent.

Father will be referred to as "person paying support" and Mother will be referred to as "person receiving support" for the purpose of the Form 14 child support calculation only.

Medical and Dental Insurance for the Children

Cost of Medical or Dental Insurance for the Children

The cost of medical or dental insurance for the children is the monthly amount of any premium paid. If the parent's employer deducts the amount of premium from his or her pay, then the cost of medical or dental insurance includes the amount of the premium paid. It does not include the cost of medical or dental insurance for the parent, the parent's spouse, or other children that are not covered by this parenting plan. The cost of medical or dental insurance for the children is included on Line 6c of Form 14.

Form 14 states: "If the amount of the actual health insurance costs for the children who are the subject of this proceeding is not available or cannot be verified, the amount of the health insurance costs attributable to the children who are the subject of this proceeding shall be calculated by dividing the total monthly costs for the policy of health insurance by the total number of persons for whom the costs are paid or to be paid and then multiplying the resulting figure by the number of children insured under the policy who are the subject of this proceeding."

5. Parent Responsible for Medical Insurance

You must check one and only one of the following three boxes.

- ☐ Neither party is required to maintain medical insurance for the benefit of the children. A health benefit plan is not available at reasonable cost through either parent's employer or union. No support rights have been assigned to the state of Missouri and the Family Support Division is not providing support enforcement services to either party.
- ☐ Father shall maintain and pay the cost of medical insurance for the benefit of the children.
- ☐ Mother shall maintain and pay the cost of medical insurance for the benefit of the children.

6. Parent Responsible for Dental Insurance

You must check one and only one of the following three boxes.

- ☐ Neither party is required to maintain dental insurance for the benefit of the children. A health benefit plan is not available at reasonable cost through either parent's employer or union. No support rights have been assigned to the state of Missouri and the Family Support Division is not providing support enforcement services to either party.
- ☐ Father shall maintain and pay the cost of dental insurance for the benefit of the children.
- ☐ Mother shall maintain and pay the cost of dental insurance for the benefit of the children.

7. Medical and Dental Insurance for the Children

The total cost of medical and dental insurance paid by Father for the children is _____ per month.

The total cost of medical and dental insurance paid by Mother for the children is _____ per month.

You must enter an amount on both lines, even if you enter "0". These amounts should also be entered on line 6c of Form 14.

In the event either parent is required to maintain medical or dental insurance, the parent providing the health benefit plan shall provide to the other parent an insurance identification card.

If support rights have been assigned to the state of Missouri or the Family Support Division is providing support enforcement services to either party, the person paying support shall notify the Family Support Division regarding the availability of medical insurance coverage through an employer or a group plan, provide the name of the insurance provider when coverage is available, and inform the division of any change in access to such insurance coverage.

Health Expenses Not Covered by Insurance

8. Medical, Dental, Vision, or Psychological Expenses not Covered by Insurance

You must check one and only one of the following four boxes.

☐ The person receiving support will pay all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses of the children not covered by insurance and the person paying support will reimburse the person receiving support for _____ percent of all such expenses that are actually paid by the person receiving support and are in excess of $250 per year per child. This does not include the uninsured extraordinary costs set forth in paragraph 9 below. No reimbursement of uncovered medical and dental expenses of the children will be allowed unless the person receiving support submits proof of such expenses to the person paying support in writing within 120 days of the date said expenses were incurred. Except for good cause, no legal proceedings seeking reimbursement will be allowed unless instituted within 360 days of the date said expenses were incurred.

Medical and dental expenses are defined by §213(d)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code.

☐ The person paying support does not have the financial resources to contribute to the payment of medical or dental expenses of the children not covered by insurance. ☐ The person receiving support has not substantially complied with the terms of the health benefit coverage. The person receiving support will be responsible for all reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the children not covered by insurance. This does not apply to the medical costs listed in Paragraph 9 below. RSMo. §454.603.5(3)

Amount of Child Support

15. Presumed Monthly Amount of Child Support

Complete all applicable amounts. The court-ordered support amount is set forth in Part B, Paragraph 17.

The presumed child support amount calculated pursuant to Form 14 for six children is: _____.

The presumed child support amount calculated pursuant to Form 14 for five children is: _____.

The presumed child support amount calculated pursuant to Form 14 for four children is: _____.

The presumed child support amount calculated pursuant to Form 14 for three children is: _____.

The presumed child support amount calculated pursuant to Form 14 for two children is: _____.

The presumed child support amount calculated pursuant to Form 14 for one child is: _____.

16. Should the court order the child support pursuant to Missouri Child Support Guidelines?

You must check one and only one of the following two boxes.

☐ Yes. The court-ordered child support is the same as the presumed children support amount. The presumed child support amount as calculated herein is not rebutted as being unjust and inappropriate.

☐ No. The court-ordered child support is different than the presumed children support amount. After consideration of all relevant factors pursuant to RSMo. §452.340.8 and Form 14, the child support as calculated herein is rebutted as being unjust and inappropriate.

NOTE: Court-ordered child support will be set at the time of the court proceeding. The court is not bound by the suggestions of the parties and may set an amount greater or lesser than the suggested amounts of court-ordered child support set forth in this parenting plan. If the court approves and adopts this plan, then the support provisions herein will become the order of the court.

17. Court-Ordered Child Support

This is the amount of child support that actually will be paid by the parent paying support.

You must check all applicable boxes.

☐ Six or More Children - The person paying support is to pay to the person receiving support _____ per month when the person receiving support is entitled to support for six or more children covered by this parenting plan.

☐ Five Children - The person paying support is to pay to the person receiving support _____ per month when the person receiving support is entitled to support for five children covered by this parenting plan.

☐ Four Children - The person paying support is to pay to the person receiving support _____ per month when the person receiving support is entitled to support for four children covered by this parenting plan.

☐ Three Children - The person paying support is to pay to the person receiving support _____ per month when the person receiving support is entitled to support for three children covered by this parenting plan.

☐ Two Children - The person paying support is to pay to the person receiving support _____ per month when the person receiving support is entitled to support for two children covered by this parenting plan.

☐ One Child - The person paying support is to pay to the person receiving support _____ per month when the person receiving support is entitled to support for one child covered by this parenting plan.

NOTE: You should check each box that applies. For example, if this parenting plan pertains to three children, then you should check the boxes for three children, two children and one child. You should also enter an amount of support for three children, two children, and one child respectively. You must attach a Form 14 for each level. For example, if you have three children, then you must attach one Form 14 for three children, one Form 14 for two children, and one Form 14 for one child.

If you check one of the boxes above, you must check all the boxes below it. Once again, if you only check the box for two children and do not check the box for one child, then no support is owed when only one child remains.

18. Starting Date for Child Support

You must check one and only one of the following two boxes if either party is paying child support in Part B, Paragraph 17.

- ☐ The first child support payment is due on the date of the entry of the judgment.
☐ The first child support payment is due on _____.

Notification by the Person Receiving Support when Child Support Changes

Missouri law provides that “[u]nless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the judgment, provisions for the support of the child are terminated by emancipation of the child. The parent entitled to receive child support shall have the duty to notify the parent obligated to pay support of the child’s emancipation and failing to do so, the parent entitled to receive child support shall be liable to the parent obligated to pay support for child support paid following emancipation of a minor child, plus interest.” RSMo. §452.370.4.

Income Tax Considerations

19. Income Tax Dependents

The parties shall be entitled to claim the minor children as dependents for income tax purposes as follows: (Person paying support must be current with all support obligations as of December 31 of the tax year in which the child is to be claimed. Each parent will sign any appropriate documents to allow the other parent to make such claims.)

NOTE: The Form 14 calculation assumes that the person receiving support will claim the children as dependents. If the person paying support is entitled to claim one or more of the children, then the Form 14 guidelines are unjust and inappropriate and the second box in Paragraph 16 should be checked.

If the person claiming the children is not listed below, then the person receiving support shall be entitled to claim the omitted children as dependents in all years.

Name of Child	In odd numbered tax years, this parent will claim this child as a dependent	In even numbered tax years, this parent will claim this child as a dependent

Payment of Child Support and Wage Assignments

Wage Assignment

A wage assignment means that the child support is taken directly out of the paycheck of the person paying support. The amount withheld is sent to the Family Support Payment Center. The Family Support Payment Center will then forward the support to the person receiving support. Child support withheld pursuant to a wage assignment cannot be sent directly to the party receiving support. A record will be kept of all payments.

If a wage assignment is not ordered, then the child support may be paid directly to the person receiving support. The person paying support may also voluntarily send payments to the Family Support Payment Center. If the child support is not paid to the Family Support Payment Center, it is extremely important that each parent keep accurate records of the amount of child support paid. This means that the party paying support may not receive credit for his or her payments if he or she does not have receipts or cancelled checks. Because of this, it is proper to request a receipt from the parent receiving support.

If the person paying support is currently unemployed or self-employed, the wage assignment may still be ordered, but it will not take effect until the person paying support begins receiving regular wages.

20. Method of Payment of Child Support

You must check one and only one of the following five boxes if either party is paying child support in Part B, Paragraph 17.

- ☐ A wage assignment will not issue because a written agreement has been reached between the parties that provides for an alternative arrangement. Child support shall be paid directly to the person receiving support.
- ☐ A wage assignment will not issue because there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding for the reason that implementation of an immediate wage withholding would not be in the best interest of the child and the person paying support has made timely payments of all previously ordered support. Child support shall be paid directly to the person receiving support.
- ☐ A wage assignment will not issue because a written agreement has been reached between the parties that provides for an alternative arrangement. Child support shall be paid directly to the Family Support Payment Center, PO Box 109001, Jefferson City, Missouri, 65110-9001.
- ☐ A wage assignment will not issue because there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding for the reason that implementation of an immediate wage withholding would not be in the best interest of the child and the person paying support has made timely payments of all previously ordered support. Child support shall be paid directly to the Family Support Payment Center, PO Box 109001, Jefferson City, Missouri, 65110-9001.
- ☐ A wage assignment will be prepared by the person receiving support and issued by the Circuit Clerk upon the effective date of this judgment. Child support is ordered to be paid to the Family Support Payment Center, PO Box 109001, Jefferson City, Missouri, 65110-9001.
